

Mr. Bledsoe, was out of order and called for a decision by the Senate; whereupon the Senate decided that said amendment was not in order.

Mr. Bledsoe now raised a point of order as to the amendment by Mr. Gaither; whereupon, the Senate decided that the amendment by Mr. Gaither was out of order.

Mr. Candler now moved that said bill entitled Revenue be indefinitely postponed, and upon the question the yeas and nays were demanded.

Those who voted in the affirmative are:

Messrs. Brown, Blount, Candler, Lane, Pitchford, Simmons, Slaughter, Taylor of Granville, Thomas of Jackson, Watson and Waugh,—11.

Those who voted in the negative are:

Messrs. Arendell, Bledsoe, Barringer, Copeland, Dickson, Dobson, Dowd, Eure, Faison, Gaither, Hall, Harris of Franklin, Harriss of Chatham, Humphrey, Outlaw, Ramsay, Simpson, Street, Sharpe, Spencer, Stubbs, Taylor of Brunswick, Turner, Whitaker, Walkup and Worth,—26.

The motion to postpone did not prevail.

Mr. Gaither now presented the following proposition to wit:

Recommit the bill to the Committee on Finance, with instructions to report a bill which will yield fifty per cent. more revenue than is produced by that bill, taking the bill of the last session as the basis, as far as practicable.

Mr. Barringer now moved to lay the whole upon the table, and upon the question, demanded the yeas and nays.

Those who voted in the affirmative are:

Messrs. Barringer, Candler, Hall, Harris of Franklin, Lane, Pitchford, Simmons, Simpson, Slaughter, Taylor of Granville, Watson and Waugh,—12.

Those who voted in the negative are:

Messrs. Brown, Bledsoe, Blount, Copeland, Dickson, Dobson, Dowd, Eure, Faison, Gaither, Grist, Harriss of Chatham, Humphrey, Outlaw, Ramsay, Street, Spencer, Stubbs, Taylor of Brunswick, Turner, Whitaker, Walkup and Worth,—23.